Dear Joe --

Thanks for this update. We will be ready to help draft an ordinance on whatever timetable the community is ready. We hope you will show the tour bus operators the plan that is in use in Santa Monica.

Is it premature for us to meet on May 16, as scheduled, if your ideas aren't ready until May 15? Standing by for further word from you on this.

Thanks again. Jane

Hello Jane,

This is Joe Mariani, from Kerry Morrison's office. I wanted to let you know that Kerry was able to arrange a meeting with some of the more notable tour companies in the area. The meeting will take place this Monday (4/30) with the purpose of trying to obtain a better understanding of what changes we should make to help us alleviate the current problems we are facing, as they relate to tour companies on the Boulevard.

We really hope that this meeting will provide us with valuable information to help us as we go forward and determine what procedures need to be in place to make the Boulevard a more "walkable" and enjoyable place to be. That being said, as it took some time for us to finally get everyone in the same room for this, we were wondering if we might have a two week extension on getting your office the material as to what regulations need to be in place so rogue operators do not continue to bombard the Boulevard.

The plan would be to have this info to you no later than, Tuesday, May 15. Please let me know if that would be alright. Our apologies for the delay.

Sincerely,

Joe Mariani

Hello Jane,

The May 16th date should still be fine. Also, we have scheduled a meeting with the Santa Monica operators on May 11, so I think we should have plenty of insight for our meeting the following week. J

Thank you again for your flexibility!

Sincerely,

Joe

Dear Joe --

I think I wasn't sufficiently clear about the May 16 date. We will not have processed your information since it will not be ready until May 15. My thinking is that this will make the meeting not as productive as if it were held at a later date. Please advise.

Hello Jane,

I completely agree with you. Why don't we touch base on Monday, after our meeting with the operators, and try to schedule a new date for our follow up meeting. I know we would all like to continue our progress on this issue so we will definitely do our best to have the information you requested to you as soon as possible!
